GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS BARNHILL TO COMMISSION ON CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL HEALTH CARE NEEDS

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Jarrett Barnhill of Hillsborough to the North Carolina Commission on Children with Special Health Care Needs.

Barnhill is director of the UNC School of Medicine Developmental Neuropharmacology Clinic. He is a past president of the N.C. Psychology Association, the N.C. Council of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry. Barnhill has been named a distinguished fellow by the American Psychiatric Association, a fellow by the American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry and received the Division Teacch award for achievement from UNC School of Medicine in 2003. He received his Bachelor's degree in anthropology from UNC at Chapel Hill and his medical license from Wake Forest University School of Medicine.

The commission monitors and evaluates the availability and provision of health services to special needs children in the State and monitors and evaluates services provided under the Health Insurance Program for Children.
